Description

1988 Sea Ray 460 Express Cruiser — Refit / Restoration Opportunity

Location: Ontario

Length: 46 ft

Type: Power Cruiser / Express

Condition: Project Vessel

This 1988 Sea Ray 460 Express Cruiser presents a rare opportunity for the right buyer to restore or refit a classic offshore cruiser. Known for its solid construction, wide beam, and spacious interior layout, the 460 Express was one of Sea Ray's flagship express models of its era.

With the right vision and investment, this vessel offers the potential to be transformed into a capable cruising yacht, liveaboard, or custom project.

Hull & Construction

The boat features a solid fiberglass hull and the robust build quality that Sea Ray was known for during this period. The wide beam design provides excellent interior volume and a stable ride underway.

Engines & Mechanical

- The vessel is equipped with twin Detroit Diesel 6V92 inboard engines.
- One engine currently runs
- The second engine requires replacement or rebuild
- Detroit Diesel engines are widely supported and commonly rebuilt, making this boat a viable candidate for a mechanical restoration or repower project.

Layout & Accommodations

The Sea Ray 460 offers a generous layout with excellent space for cruising or liveaboard use.

Features include:

- Large main salon
- Full galley
- Multiple sleeping cabins
- Head and shower
- Expansive cockpit
- Spacious flybridge helm area
- Wide side decks for easy movement around the vessel
- Project Potential

This vessel is best suited for:

- Marine refit professionals
- Experienced boat owners
- Buyers looking for a custom restoration project
- Yards or investors seeking a 46-foot platform at an accessible price point
- With refurbishment and mechanical work, this Sea Ray 460 could once again become a capable cruising yacht.

A large 46-foot Sea Ray with solid bones and classic styling, offering significant potential for the right buyer willing to undertake a restoration or repower project.

Showings available by appointment.
